About Organixx

Sustainable, eco-friendly, reusable, recyclable, fair trade, natural, energy efficient, organic, local, green, low-impact, fresh. These are words that inspire us at Organixx. From the building materials that surround you in our dining room, to our food product choices, culinary procedures and sanitation practices, we strive to have those words define our actions. We have carefully and thoughtfully made choices in the products and practices that are a part of our daily business. Our first choice in regards to our food is to utilize organic products. Unfortunately due to restrictions in availability and our desire to offer a healthy delicious menu that is also a great value to you, we are unable to be totally organic. Our menu represents the best of organic, natural, local, wild caught and traditional products available to us. We welcome you to join our efforts to conduct business in an earth friendly fashion. Please feel free to share your thoughts and ideas with us.
